Shizuoka Prefectural Fujinokuni Junior High School 2026 Recruitment Guidelines

1 Purpose of studying at Shizuoka Prefectural Fujinokuni Junior High School

It is a school for people who did not finish their grades 1 through 9 education (elementary school to junior high school) due to unforeseeable circumstances or those who graduated from junior high school but barely attended school, to study junior high school level academic subjects. It is not a place for those who solely wish to study Japanese.

2 School location

- Iwata Main Campus

Address: 1-6-16 Nakaizumi, Iwata City, Shizuoka Prefecture

Tenpyo-no-Machi 3F

3 Admission qualifications

Applicants must meet all of the following requirements:

- Resident of Shizuoka Prefecture.
- Age 15 years or older by April 1, 2026 (born before April 1, 2011).
- Have not completed elementary school or junior high school in Japan or abroad or have graduated from junior high school without being able to study adequately.
- As a general rule, applicants who are foreign nationals must not have a "Student" status of residence indicated in their residence card.

※ It is possible to transfer while the applicant is in their second or third year (instead of entering as a first-year student). However, additional requirements apply in the case of a transfer. For more details, please contact Fujinokuni Junior High School.

※ Even if you apply to Fujinokuni Junior High School, you can still apply to high school as well.

4 School district

Anyone living in Shizuoka Prefecture can enroll.
